SHEARD, Warren Bruce (Wazza)

I am a proud indigenous man of First Australian Heritage, of the Darug clan of Western Sydney.

I moved here 25 years ago in the role of Prison Officer at Pardelup Prison Farm and recently retired after 23 years service, and have been actively involved in the community ever since. I also an active member of the local Lions Club and have an intimate knowledge of what is happening in the area and community.

We urgently need better facilities for our residents, especially our young people and seniors, also local business and tourism need to be strongly supported and assisting in the provision of local employment.

I was, and still am a proud veteran of the Royal Australian Navy having achieved 23 years service, and still liaise and continue to support Australian Defence Force Service, men, women and their families.

Plantagenet Shire, and Mt. Barker are a community that I am proud of, and I will represent 'ALL' strongly, committedly and professionally.

SHEARD, Warren (Wazza) – Councillor Nomination Shire of Plantagenet

I am a proud indigenous man of First Australian Heritage, of the Darug/Gundungurra clans in the western Sydney and Blue Mountains regions.

Born at Katoomba, NSW on 31st January 1954.

I transferred to WA in 1985 with the Royal Australian Navy, having served for 23 years and being a proud returned veteran discharged in 1991.

After leaving the Navy I worked within other State Government Emergency Services and recently retired from the Department of Corrective Services after 24 years.

Relocated to Mt Barker in 1998 with the appointment of a Prison Officer position at Pardelup Prison Farm where I operated in a supervisory position undertaking work and projects within local communities and local Shires.
