

DEALING WITH UNREASONABLE BEHAVIOUR

DIVISION	BUSINESS UNIT	RESPONSIBILITY AREA
CEO	CEO	Regulatory Services

OBJECTIVE

This policy will guide staff on how to deal with unreasonable behaviour from customers.

POLICY

Council representatives are expected to treat customers with courtesy and respect at all times and to make every reasonable effort to address the needs of customers, even when they are being difficult. However, sometimes there are customers whose issues cannot be dealt with to their satisfaction.

1. Customers who cannot be satisfied:

The Chief Executive Officer can determine that a customer does not accept that the Shire is unable to assist them. Where a Supervisor/Manager is satisfied that every effort has been made by staff to address a customer's needs, the Chief Executive Officer may make a decision that there is no reasonable prospect of reaching a position where a particular customer is satisfied. In this instance, the Chief Executive Officer may decide to stop or limit responses to the customer in relation to the issue in question.

The Chief Executive Officer is to ensure that this is communicated in writing to the customer and that the customer is given the opportunity to make representations to the Council about the proposed course of action. The Chief Executive Officer will continue to monitor any further contact with the customer over the issue.

2. Customers who make unreasonable demands:

Customers who make unreasonable demands can result in a significant diversion of Shire staff resources away from other functions and staff requirements. They can also create an inequitable allocation of resources.

The Chief Executive Officer can determine to write to the customer requesting that they limit and focus their requests and that if the unreasonable requests recur, staff may not respond to such requests where in the opinion of the Chief Executive Officer no new specific, substantial and serious issues have been raised.

The Chief Executive Officer may also determine to limit responses to a fixed number of responses in a given period.

3. Customers who consistently raise the same issue with different staff:

If the Chief Executive Officer determines that a customer is constantly raising the same issue with different staff or elected members, the Chief Executive Officer can determine that only a nominated staff person will deal with the customer, that an appointment must be made for any discussions required, or that all future contact with the Shire must be in writing.

4. Customers who are rude, abusive or aggressive:

Rude, abusive or aggressive behaviour may include rude or otherwise vulgar noises, expressions or gestures, verbal abuse of a personal or general nature, threatening or offensive behaviour, physical violence against property or against a person.

On the Telephone

1. If, in the opinion of any staff member, rude, abusive or aggressive comments or statements are made in the telephone conversation, the staff member is to:
  - a) Warn the caller/customer that if the behaviour continues, the conversation will be terminated; and
  - b) Terminate the conversation if the rude, abusive or aggressive behaviour continues after a warning has been given.
2. Where a conversation is terminated, the staff member is to inform his/her Supervisor/Manager of the incident.
3. The staff member involved must make file notes of exactly what has happened and these should be recorded in the Electronic Records Management System (ERMS).

In Person

1. At the Shire Office - If a staff member is dealing with a customer at the front desk and feel that they or other customers or staff may be placed in a dangerous situation, the staff member is to use the duress alarm and another member of staff may call the police if required.
2. At all other Shire Outstations/Workplaces - If a staff member is dealing with a customer and feels that they or other customers or staff may be placed in a dangerous situation, a staff member is to call the Shire Office front desk and ask them to inform the relevant Supervisor/Manager of the situation.
  - If the relevant Supervisor/Manager is not there, then any available Supervisor/Manager should be informed. That Supervisor/Manager should then go to the assistance of the staff member immediately.
  - Where assistance is required outside of normal working hours the Emergency Call Out Phone (Works and Services) should be called and if required, call the police immediately.

5. Documentation and reporting:

In all situations, staff are to document the incident and a record must be made and maintained in the ERMS.

6. Review: 2 years
